Central cockpit sailing yacht built with a steel hull, designed for those seeking a solid, safe vessel with true ocean-going capabilities. The central cockpit provides greater protection while sailing and an excellent organization of the spaces on board. Outside, the vessel offers well-dimensioned areas for circulation and comfortable use while cruising.

The interior stands out for its habitability and functionality. At the stern there is a spacious owner's cabin, offering comfort and privacy. The saloon is spacious and bright, with a direct connection to the forward cabin (open plan), creating a fluid and welcoming interior environment.

The longitudinal galley is generous in size and fully equipped, allowing practical use during extended stays on board. The vessel also features a bathroom equipped with an electric toilet.

This sailing yacht offers very fluid circulation and numerous storage spaces, making it particularly suitable for long-distance cruising. With regular maintenance properly carried out, this yacht is ready to sail, available for viewings and immediate delivery.
