Jeanneau Melody 1979, a classic sailing yacht with well-balanced lines, good sailing performance and a functional layout, ideal for cruising.

The interior offers a simple and practical arrangement, featuring two double cabins, a saloon with settees on both sides and a central dining table, a fully equipped galley, and a complete bathroom, providing good onboard comfort for extended stays.

At present, the engine requires a complete overhaul in order for the vessel to be ready for immediate navigation.

There is the possibility to secure an annual mooring contract in the Lisbon docks, suitable for vessels up to 15 metres.
