Fantastic Moody 419, a classic ocean cruising sailing yacht built in England and widely recognized for her solid construction, safe sailing characteristics, and comfortable liveaboard layout. This unit is currently ashore and requires some preparation work — mainly cosmetic and recommissioning — before being relaunched. An excellent opportunity for an owner looking for a robust bluewater hull. Owner-style spacious layout version, offering generous living areas and excellent storage throughout.

Large and bright saloon with classic teak interior, wide sofas, and dining table. Chart table to starboard.

Forward cabin with double berth, full head to starboard, and twin bunk cabin to port.

Aft, large owner's cabin with double berth, sofa, and private en-suite head.

Hull and structure built in Lloyd's-approved facilities with hand-laminated GRP construction and skeg-hung rudder for enhanced directional stability and offshore safety.

Some equipment:
