The SY Ocean Leopard constructed by Southern Ocean Shipyards in 1988 is even today an eye catcher wherever she goes. Back in the 90's she won several prizes, smashed records, and amazed the most experienced sailors around the world every time she was spotted sailing with all her glamour and exceptional performances.

Several refits were done in the past (2001, 2005, 2013 and 2020) in order to preserve her identity and to maintain the glamorous feeling when you step below deck.

Currently berthed in the renewed Marina de Cascais, she's back in the water after a 3-month dry dock maintenance intervention. She's now ready to be sold to the next fortunate owner.

The Ocean 80 is fully equipped, fully functional and ready to return where she belongs – the Ocean.
