Recognised for its robustness, safety and excellent sailing performance, the Westerly Seahawk 35 stands out as an ideal choice for both coastal and offshore cruising, offering comfort and reliability.

Featuring a centre cockpit, this sailing yacht provides enhanced protection and safety at the helm while underway. The interior layout is well balanced and highly functional, offering a spacious aft double cabin, a forward double cabin, fully equipped galley, saloon, and complete head.

Equipped with twin keels, the yacht allows for beach approaches and controlled grounding in shallow areas, significantly increasing its versatility.

To highlight the engine changed in 2019, being at the moment with only 228h of use, as well as her excellent condition, both technically and cosmetically, with all maintenance up to date, ready to sail and available for immediate delivery.
